New museum proposed for Haliburton

This drawing shows the proposed new pioneer museum to be located in Glebe Park. Consulting architect for the project is Napier Simpson. Tenders are now being called on the construction of the museum. Jerry Dawson, chairman of the Pioneer Museum Committee said that funding for the project if the museum is built will be done through Wintario and private donations. He said that a fund raising campaign for the museum would not conflict with the arena and curling club's campaign.

Plans for building announced last week by chairman of committee

Haliburton - Plans to build a new museum complex in Haliburton Village were announced this week by the Municipality of Dysart et al and the Pioneer Museum Committee.

The two storey structure, designed by architect Napier Simpson, will be located just inside the gate of Glebe Park, which is situated on a point on the north side of Head Lake.

Jerry Dawson, chairman of the Pioneer Museum Committee, said that the funding for the project is hoped to be arranged through Wintario. He noted that the committee has a conditional commitment from Wintario which is subject to approval when the final cost figures come in.

He said that in order to get the Wintario Funding a minimum of 25 per cent must be funded privately.

Mr. Dawson said that there would be a fund raising project to raise money locally, although it would not be conflicting with the arena and curling projects.

The proposed building will be a two storey structure with a large display area on the second floor. Mr. Dawson explained that the building, if constructed, will be built into the side of a hill and there will be the two storeys open at the front and one floor at the back.

The bottom floor will contain a storage and restoration area as well as a large meeting room.

The site for the museum will likely contain more in the future than just the museum building itself. Mr. Dawson said that the project includes a sizeable number of acres.

Among the many items of interest that could possibly be located on the site are a period home, sugar making operation, and hand saw mill and a number of other pioneer artifacts.

The period home on the site will likely be the Steve Thompson home which is presently located on the site of the planned senior citizen apartment building.

Mr. Dawson said that plans originally were to move the present museum to the site and use it as a period home but it was decided that the Thompson home was superior.

Tenders on the new museum building were called this week and Mr. Dawson said that cost figures cannot be announced until the tenders are opened.

Members of the Museum Committee include Mr. Dawson, Allan Bagg and Ron Curry from the Haliburton Rotary Club; Jack Denholm, Gary McKnight and Murray Fearrey from Dysart et al Council; Wayne Wood clerk administrator of Dysart et al; and George Hardy, the manager of the present museum.

Need help because of expenses

Liberal Mpp's John Eakins (Victoria-Haliburton) and Jack Riddell (Huron-Middlesex) have called upon the government of Ontario to give urgent consideration to some means of alleviating the financial burden imposed on many Ontarians as a result of increases in expenses which exceed the A.I.B. guidelines.

The two Liberal Members point out that "For people in rural Ontario, the cost of hydro has increased 50 per cent which is a very serious matter when one considers the urgent necessity of hydro power in storm-tossed rural areas. Fuel and gas prices are also causing great concern. "A short time ago, our colleague, Dick Ruston of Essex South urged that the Anti-inflation Board review the profit structures of Union Gas and Consumers Gas, which last year had profit increases of 25 per cent and 15 per cent respectively. We would certainly endorse this idea, in view of the fact that the customers of these gas companies have their wages restricted by A.I.B. guidelines," a release said.

"License fees for commercial motor vehicles have recently been increased. For 4-cylinder vehicles, there is a 30.4 increase, from $23 to $30; for 5 or 6-cylinder vehicles, a 40.6 per cent increase, from $32 to $45; for 8-cylinder vehicles, a 50 per cent increase, from $40 to $60. Vehicles with engine displacement in excess of 6.5 litres (397 cubic ins.) being registered in Ontario for the first time after December 1st will carry a fee of $80.

"We realize that the A.I.B. guidelines are not, at present intended to cover all contingencies. However, the increases which we have mentioned affect a great majority of Ontarians, and on their behalf, we would ask the Premier and his colleagues to give some consideration to the problems which these people are experiencing, and to finding some means of reducing the impact of rising costs."

Especially check water pipes where they are near buildings, or under drive-ways or other areas where snow cover is usually removed. Also check pipes in unheated parts of a building, near doors or windows, and under livestock waterers, for adequate insulation.

Fiberglass insulation designed to wrap around pipes can be quite effective. Probably the best idea for uninsulated pipes which are most susceptible to freezing, is to use a heat tape. These tapes wrap around the pipe and plug into a conventional electric outlet. These tapes are relatively safe and inexpensive - check there are no breaks in the insulation on the tape before you use it.

If you have plastic water lines, use heat tapes with a

Farm

It's Annual Meeting Time
During the next couple of months, many farm organizations will be holding their Annual Meetings.

An annual meeting is a vital part of the year's program for every democratic organization, for this meeting provides the members with an opportunity to express themselves. The expression can be in two important ways. First of all, during the annual meeting, reports are given on the activities of the past year, and members have a chance to discuss their wishes for the coming year's events.

In some organizations, the Annual Meeting is the only one which members normally attend - the rest of the year, the board of directors handles all the business. Thus, it is important for members to attend this annual meeting to express themselves on current issues.

Coboconk News

by Sheila Lake

We welcome to our community, Mr. and Mrs. Yeo, who are the new owners of the Shell Service Station at the corner of Highways 48 and 35. Theresa and Thane and their five children come to Coboconk from Georgetown. They operated a Service Station there at the corner of Dixie Road and Brittinnica. The Yeo family, took over the Shell Station, purchasing it from Edgar Fildey on Dec. 15th. For those of you who may be wondering just how many years the Shell Station has been on the corner, the history goes back to 1934. Back on May 24th, 1934, Bob married Jean Spry and so had someone else to help in the business. Jean and Bob enlarged the premises in 1946 and in 1952, enlarged it again. Making a bigger lunch room. Jean and Bob Callan ran the business until selling it in Sept. 1969 to Mrs. Helen Fidey and her son and family. Edgar and Diane Fidey who moved here from Newmarket. Tragically, Helen, Edgar's mother did not live very long and so Edgar and Diane carried on the business. So now Edgar has sold to the Yeo's and we in the community welcome them and trust they enjoy many years in business with we who live in the area, plus all the tourists who stop at the corner.

Mrs. Marjorie Henderson accompanied by her daughter & family, Betty and Jim Kirkcaddy and girls of Ajax are enjoying Christmas with Mrs. Henderson's sister Mr.

& Mrs. W.G. Curran at Orillia.

Faith Tabernacle held their Sunday School concert in the church Friday night with a capacity crowd. The children all did well in their various parts and teachers and children are to be commended on an excellent programme.

Mrs. Mildred Faulkner is in Lindsay spending Christmas with daughter, Lindsay and husband and Lisa. After Christmas, they are all leaving for a Florida vacation.

Mr. & Mrs. Bob Callan spent Christmas eve and Christmas ith Mr. & Mrs. Gary Callan and boys at Little Britain.

Mrs. Audruss Peel has been ill in a Toronto hospital. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. & Mrs. Sam Endicott spent Christmas with Don Lake and family at Don Mills. Trust everyone had a nice Christmas and remembered the true meaning of the season. Special services were held in local churches and worshippers could attend a service either Christmas eve or Christmas day in one or the other of our five churches.

The Anglican church held a buffet supper for the elder of their parishoners just prior to Christmas.

The "pond" is again an attractive out-door rink, and I'm sure a lot of new skates were initiated on the "pond". While the ice isn't all that thick, the pond is not so deep as the lake and kids must have somewhere to have fun. Isn't it rather sad that we have no arena for kids to enjoy, yet the little community of Little Britain to our south has so much to offer young folks? Little Britain is perhaps a third of our population, but they have whatever it takes to organize or press on for their goals. Perhaps 1978 will see some progress in our townships for an arena, sports centre or whatever. There have been a number of folks who have fought long and hard for an arena here, but somehow there is always that proverbial "brick wall" that is a real stumbling block. I'm sure there is money spend on items of lesser value, and our young folks are the citizens of tomorrow. How about doing something for them?

Watch the ice on some our street corners, along by the post office, hotel corner, etc. That light snow is only a camouflage and makes walking tricky.

Mrs. Dennis Mawbery and son Arnold of Victoria, B.C. also Mr. and Mrs. Weir and family of Toronto spent Christmas with Mr. & Mrs. Fred Auston and family. It was the first time in many years that Doris and Fred enjoyed a visit from Doris' mother and brother, Arnold and her mother and brother are staying for a short holiday?? our winter weather!

Christmas visitors with Mrs. M.A. Black and Jim were Cadet Charles Solmes from Navy Base, Cornwallis, Nova Scotia. Carrie Solmes of Lindsay. Karen and Roy Scott, Tracy and Sandra of Lindsay. Mrs. Goldene Olsen of Lindsay and Metro Policeman Randy Olsen and his wife Jean from Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Fell, Sandy and Sherry of Lindsay spent Christmas with Mrs. Fell's parents, Mr. & Mrs. G.S. Richman.

Mr. & Mrs. John Spry of London spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. & Mrs. L. Spry and family.

Mrs. Mary Limrick spent Christmas with her nephews, Mr. & Mrs. Jim Nesbitt and family and Mr. & Mrs. Bob Nesbitt and family at Brampton.

Mr. & Mrs. Billy Liscombe and family of Mississauga spent several days with his aunt, Mr. & Mrs. Ben Farrow

The new Haliburton Curling club is just about ready for curling action. The building is nearing completion. The construction on the club started in 1977. The building will also house an area for squash courts as well as four sheets of ice for curling and various other rooms. The building is located on the same site at the old building.

Members of the Haliburton Curling Club were hard at work on the weekend getting the ice ready for the building. Curlers in Haliburton will be happy to hear that the rink is nearing completion. The curling club is located beside the Dysart Community Centre in the park.

New Haliburton Curling Club to open Monday

The news we have all been waiting for - open night of curling next Monday - and hopefully schedules will begin the following week. Bob Colliver and son Brent got the initial floods on before the end of 1977, now we will hustle and get the ice painted and the lines and circles on - ready to go Monday next.

There is still considerable work to get done in the lobby, lounge, kitchen and bar, so members watch for a work call. We must get as ready as possible for our big "Skyline" Spiel - January 20, 21-22. In the meantime play-downs are completed for our OCA representatives. Dave Gray's rink of wife Julie and John and Linda Beachli will be our hope in the Seagram mixed at Beaverton, Jan. 6-7-8. Dick MacLean will skip his rink of Glen Blair and Ken and John Wilson in the consols at Peterborough Golf, Jan. 13-14-15th. Our own club is hosting the intermediates - Feb. 24-25-26.

Bill Everson took a mixed rink to Cannington last week and brought home the prizes for 2-game High Score - and Bob Colliver did the same with his men's rink at Oshawa recently. It looks like we are in for a good half season - but will need 100% co-operation from all our members.

New curlers, or prospects - are again asked to phone Bob or Jean Colliver at 457-2547, so we can arrange practice and clinic sessions.

Above all - be out on Monday - Jan. 9 - 7:30 - Opening night, and open curling.

Our Mistake

In the December 21 edition of The Haliburton County Echo the name of Kimberley Roberts was inadvertently omitted from the Christmas greeting ad of Donald Finn and staff. The Echo regrets any inconvenience this oversight may have caused.

Minden OPP investigate sixty-three general occurrences

Minden - Members of the Minden detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police investigated 62 general occurrences and 10 reportable vehicle collisions during the week of Dec. 27 to Jan. 2.

During that time there were four non-reportable collisions investigated seven break-ins, three compassionate messages delivered, two persons charged with liquor violations and one snowmobile violation.

Local men fight wolf

Haliburton - Three local men last Tuesday fought off a timber wolf, the men armed only with broken pieces of brush.

Stuart Baker, principal of Minden Public School, accompanied by Jack Brohm and Buck Baker of Haliburton were snowmobiling on an old logging road about 6 miles north east of Drag Lake when they stopped for a rest.

Suddenly they heard a noise and were confronted by a large timber wolf dragging a pole to which a wire snare had been attached. Immediately the wolf began to growl and show his teeth. Stuart and Jack broke off some nearby branches and began to harass the wolf while Buck got a small axe from his pack. With unbelievable accuracy he delivered a fatal blow to the wolf's head. According to the threesome the wolf had been suffering for some time.

photographer in Trenton. The Lord has really blessed his business as well as family relationships.

He testifies that the witness of ordinary folks at the most unusual times and places, when there was a real personal need in his life, had led him to publicly confess Jesus as Lord of his life. Since that time, Lyall rejoices at the change Christ has worked in his life. He is actively involved in his church and the Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International in the Quinte Area.

When reporting crime newspapers naming innocents

In our cherished system of jurisprudence, anyone accused of a crime is deemed innocent until such time as he or she is proven guilty "beyond a reasonable doubt."

Thus, it can be said, correctly, that a newspaper which publishes the names of those accused of crimes is naming "innocents".

The courts have long upheld the right to publish the names of accused so long as the reports make it clear that there is no imputation of guilt.

The community press seldom must concern itself about the matter, primarily because serious crime is something we don't encounter frequently. As to the lesser infractions, such as parking and minor traffic violations, they are hardly newsworthy enough to justify such publicity.

Last week, for the first time in the Citizen's history (we think), we felt called upon to publish the names of five residents of the community who face criminal charges.

The decision to publish the names was not arrived at lightly, and our action has not gone unnoticed. (There was even a threatened lawsuit based on an allegation that publication of the names before anyone had been convicted constituted slander.)

Why did we do it? Well, one reason was the nature of the alleged crime.

Orangeville Police are deeply concerned at the extent to which illicit use of drugs has become a problem in our community. When months of investigation led to the seizure of about $1,000. worth of what police believed to be home-grown marijuana, the officers considered the haul important enough to call the local press at 1 a.m. and suggest a picture as well as a story was in order.

To set the record straight, the police did not provide the press with the names. Rather, they told the reporters the accused would be appearing in court Tuesday.

Such a procedure allows the courts to decide whether circumstances were such that some or all the names involved should not be published. In its wisdom, the court involved decided otherwise and released the names to the Citizen.

The court's action - and ours - has been applauded by the officers involved. They believe, rightly or wrongly, that publication of names in such circumstances acts as a powerful deterrent to anyone who might be thinking of delving in the world of illicit drugs.

That being the case, we should like to make two commitments.

One is to be consistent in the future. If we learn of drug arrests and the courts release the names of the accused, the names will be published. And it won't matter whether the persons charged is a person friend or a Citizen advertier; we can't discriminate.

The other is to do our best to follow each case through the courts to ensure that dismissal of charges, or an acquittal is reported as fully and fairly as an eventual conviction.

We doubt that the course we have chosen will win us many friends. Probably quite contrary. But, if it makes the lot of our policemen any easier, it will have been worth it.

Letters to the Editor

Freedom of information attracts much debate

Freedom of information is a topic that usually attracts extensive debate among journalists but seldom stirs the interest of the average, busy, involved individual.

An individual is already surrounded with so much information he doesn't know what to do with it anyway. It is exhausting to sort out that which bears on one's area of concern or operation.

So what if council holds a closed meeting, or what if some provincial or federal regulations are prepared on the basis of confidential documents. Does the average individual care...until he is touched by the actions?

We think people do care. Probably it's that assumption that keeps people in the news business conscious of the actions of elected and appointed officials. This doesn't suggest either the news people or the officials are right all the time or wrong all the time.

M.P. Jed Baldwin is currently lobbying for greater freedom of information at the national level. He's indignant that so much information can be kept secret simply by the application by some bureaucrat of a "confidential" stamp. It is recognized that in some areas there must be the protection of confidences but there must also be guidelines to prevent abuse.

In Ontario the cabinet has approved establishment of a commission to study improvements in public information policies. It is important to decide the categories of government information which should be treated as confidential. The protection of individual privacy and the right of recourse in regard to the use of government records is important.

Developing appropriate freedom of information policies is an essential ingredient as government becomes more complex and the tendency is to ignore so much of its activity.

At the local level the policy is that council meets in open session except to discuss such matters as litigation, property purchases, or personnel. We often conclude that other topics do not get loaded into the discussion because it is so much more comfortable to have the discussions without them being reported. Indeed council recently took the most unusual step of agreeing one of their number would record the minutes when staff is not present at a closed meeting, and the minutes would be approved at the conclusion of the meeting before adjournment.

Freedom of information suggests the facts might be available on which decisions are made, and responsible people can support or oppose from some base of information. If the information is kept from people, frustration and anger settle in. Then confrontation is the only answer.

We hope the federal and provincial governments develop realistic guidelines on freedom of information, just as we hope local councils abide by their understood policies in permitting as much information as possible to be available to the citizens so their interpretations may be reasonably based.

Fair Play

While in Toronto last week we picked up a copy of the Toronto Sun and thought that you might be interested in the following write-up. Metro residents may be tightening their belts and doing without, but not when it comes to Christmas presents. Simpsons, The Bay, Woolco Department Stores and K-Mart Ltd., report increases in December sales over last year, especially in the week before Christmas. Eaton's reports strong Christmas sales but says it has not yet compared sales with last year's figures. "We're delighted" said Kenneth Clark of Simpsons. "December sales have hit an alltime record and we've also had record sales this year. Let's face it people are still spending money. Here in Haliburton County local businessmen are perturbed about the fact that local people are going to such centres as Lindsay, Peterborough and Toronto to do their Christmas shopping. The businessmen must ask themselves the question "Why are they doing this?" Personally we don't think that it's price because figures prove that the local merchants are in line on most articles. A report on the CBC northern network should tell us something. Every week comparison shopping is done in a number of small towns and recently a comparison was done between Haliburton Red & White, Minden IGA and Loblaws in Lindsay on 19 items of fresh produce. The results showed only a .5 per cent difference in Haliburton and Minden, and a shocking difference of 13.5 per cent in those two stores and Lindsay Loblaws. Some of the people who do their shopping out of town are the first ones to ask the local merchants for a donation for this worthy cause of that worthy cause. Let's not forget that the local merchants are the backbone of the community supporting all local organizations and employing a great many people.

Syl Apps a former captain of the Toronto Maple Leafs who is now 62 years of age maintains a summer home on Amherst Island, has a share in a hunting and fishing retreat in Haliburton and will holiday in March at a new Florida condominium. By then he should be a grandfather for the 14th and 15th time. He is now in the hockey hall of fame and his son Syl Apps Jr. plays for the Los Angeles Kings of the National Hockey League.

Jean Sears who writes a column for the Minden Progress told us that in a recent column a mistake was made in reporting the death of Rex Boice. She wishes to apologize to the family and friends and regrets that this error was made. Rex is well and vacationing in the sunny south.

For the past few weeks we have been wondering why Ron Stackhouse who plays defence for the Pittsburgh Penguins has not been showing up on the hockey summaries. We noticed in a write up in the Toronto Star that Pittsburgh have run into a rash of injuries and Ron along with fellow defencemen Dave Burrows and Mario Faubert are injured and forced to sit on the sidelines.

According to a write-up by John Powers in the Toronto Star the results of the 1977 Big Fish Contest, co-sponsored by Ontario Federation of Anglers and Hunters, tell more than the size of the largest caught in each of the nine species. Judging from the laker entries, William Wablers and Whitefish are the tickets to the big trout. On June 20, Robert Tirilis of Hamilton was dragging the small model of the latter lure when he hooked his winning 38 1/4 pounder in Drag Lake, Haliburton.

Mr. Wes Baker of Haliburton received his last rose from Nancy's Flowers, Haliburton last week. His weekly rose was won through the Haliburton County Echo's Pirates Bonanza.

Home for the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Burk of Richmond, B.C. and Major and Mrs. E. Kaasalainen and boys of Ottawa and Mr. Greg Walling of Peterborough. They visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Walling at Haliburton.

Mrs. Phurness Watt, of Haliburton, supplied us with a write up recently, which includes some news on her son-in-law Eddy Burke formerly of Haliburton. We quote from the write-up Live theatre made its return to Baden-Soellinger, Germany on October 19 to 21 as the Baden Playmakers staged their first production in two years, a Schumann and Smith comedy. "The Tender Trap". Eddy Burkes recovered from a shaky first night as Joe McCall, hen-pecked husband loose in the big city and came through with a polished performance on the final night, practically stealing the show. Eddy is stationed with the Canadian Armed Forces in Germany. There were seven performers in the cast of the Tender Trap.

I just received a letter from good friend Rick Poole, and was really pleased to hear from him. Rick said that the Poole family have now settled into their new life in Winnipeg. We really miss you around here Rick and look forward to talking to you on your next visit back in Haliburton.

This week we said good-bye to one of our employees and friends Jim Badgley who has been News Editor here at The Echo for the past year and a half. Jim has taken on the position as News Editor for the Arnprior Chronicle. During his stay here in Haliburton we had a lot of laughs together, went out together on several occasions and we also had a lot of arguments, but that's as far as they ever went. We were always good friends after them. During their stay here they made many friends and we here at The Echo wish Jim, his wife Shirley and their daughter Heather, the best of luck, as they take up residence in Arnprior.

Editor's Notebook

By Jim Badgley

I have been fortunate in my six year career in the newspaper business to have the opportunity to travel around work in different locations.

To show some of the moves we have made, our soon to be four year old daughter was born in Galt, Ontario (now Cambridge), lived in south central Ontario for a time in Brighton, has moved to Timmins in North eastern Ontario, has spent some time in Haliburton and is now preparing to move to Arnprior near Ottawa.

Moving to a new town is always exciting for me and usually quite a challenge.

First of all there is moving, and if it wasn't for my father, I probably would still be wondering how to get my furniture from Brighton to Timmins, a distance of about 500 miles.

He is at it again. By the time you read this column, he has already driven to Arnprior and back with a truck load of my furniture.

This will in all likelihood, be one of the final moves for the Badgleys. A few years ago, after our little girl was born, we decided that we would like to see some of the countryside, but the pace would have to slow down once she got into school.

By moving to Arnprior, an area where there is a junior Kindergarten, she will be able to go to school next September.

Other than the fact that one can usually find a new challenge in another job there are many good sound reasons for moving.

First of all, myself and my family, has gained a first hand knowledge of a great deal of Ontario and have learned about the people in the province we live.

Lasting friendships are created and it makes me feel at home when I am in almost any area.

Moving puts somewhat of a strain on your well being though, but I have found the solution to that.

Immediately, every time we decide to move, I put the wife in charge of making the arrangements. (By making the arrangements I mean packing the boxes and making sure everything we want to take ends up in the truck).

This she handles with a great deal of ability but I find it better to keep out of her way when the packing is going on.

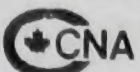

Moving to a new job, as good as it seems, also has its drawbacks. It doesn't take a person long, in a place like Haliburton, to get settled and become part of the community.

Haliburton has been good to the Badgleys. It has provided us with an enjoyable year and a half of our lives and perhaps someday we will return here to stay.

One consolation we have when leaving Haliburton County is that my parents have a cottage north of Minden and we will be returning frequently to visit.

To everyone who has helped me, and to those who have supported The Echo since I have been in Haliburton I would like to thank you.

In the early 1930's some of the local boys decided to organize a new hockey team. They called themselves "The Haliburton Millionaires". To raise money for their uniforms, they put on a play which was directed by Mrs. Arneberg, and assisted by Mrs. Jack Robertson. The play called "The Blue Bag." The first night in the town hall they cleared $80.00. The Millionaires played local teams including the road gangs (Camp 2 and 3) which were building the Minden-Haliburton Highway during 1930-33.

The cup won by this team was called The Porter Cup. It was named after a Lindsay man who had married a Haliburton girl by the name of Ellis. This team played several years around Haliburton taking on The Huskies at times and usually losing to them. (Special thanks to R. Brohm and J. Robertson for information).

Report from Queen's Park

By MPP John Eskine

On the last day of the Fall Session of the Ontario Legislature, the Lieutenant-Governor gave the Prorogation Speech, reviewing the session, the first of the 31st Parliament.

Following are some excerpts from Her Honour's Speech, which you may find interesting.

The current state of Canadian Federation, which remains a major preoccupation of government and thoughtful citizens across Canada. Last June's three-day Conference on Canadian Destiny promoted constructive dialogue among concerned citizens from all parts of the country, and emphasized the fact that it is for all Canadians outside Quebec to become actively involved now in meeting this challenge which faces us all...a challenge whose implications transcend the realm of mere political ideology.

Unemployment, inflation and an uncertain economic climate continue to be serious problems, and the lay-offs by two major nickel mining companies in Northern Ontario had led to unprecedented action in the appointment of a select committee of the Legislature, to ensure joint, in-depth examination and discussion of the situation by legislators and the mining interests, who would hopefully produce useful, workable alternatives for both immediate and long-term perspectives.

At the same time, the province is facing the need to reverse a decline in overall mining activity in the North, by augmenting existing mineral developments and exploration activities with a $2.5 million program to be funded by the Ministry of Northern Affairs over three years.

Legislation has been passed to establish province-wide single-trade bargaining in the industrial, commercial and institutional sectors of the construction industry, which will hopefully help to simplify and streamline negotiations in this crucial segment of

From the Chamber

It's time for our 1978 New Year's resolutions. Let's make one as a group. Let us in 1978 try and do away with apathy all around us. Apathy seems to be a big problem here. Maybe it's because our quiet environment lulls us into a false sense of security, or maybe it's because we seem to be so far removed from many of the major problems of the world, but whatever the reason apathy is present in most of us in considerable doses.

Our apathy was never more obvious than in the last municipal election when almost half those elected went in by acclamation because we apparently couldn't be bothered nominating any completion. Of course the next step for many was not to bother to vote anyway. Apathy by the way doesn't prevent us from complaining about the elected representatives that serve us as a result.

Apathy shows all around us in many more subtle ways as well. It shows when we assume that our tourist friends will continue to visit our area whether we show them any special hospitality or not. It shows when we assume the cottagers will or should shop locally and hire local tradespeople when we fail to give them personal service. It shows when we don't co-operate with each other throughout our county to our mutual benefit. Competition for all of us lies not in our neighbours but in the other tourist areas in Ontario, and for that matter, the world.

Apathy also shows when we fail to support our local clubs, associations, and groups who are dedicated to worthwhile community projects. With our sparse population it is phenomenal what has been accomplished in Haliburton County by these people - but many seem to simply expect all this and why not more.

Forecasts for the economy of this country are far from optimistic for the coming year and in view of this we just cannot afford the luxury of being apathetic. Of course the opposite extreme to apathy is worry and we don't want to fall into that trap either. What we need is constructive concern. We know we have the best holiday area anywhere in Ontario, but there are thousands of people out there that don't. If we are going to survive a lag in the over all economy we are going to have to work harder - together - to get a larger share of the pie than we have in the past. It means not only spreading the word that we are here, but also making sure they enjoy themselves and enjoy doing business with us when they are here. Cottagers and tourists are here to get away from the hassle and frustrations of city life. If we all make sure that they encounter no hassles and frustrations then we shall be rewarded, and if we do not then they will probably search somewhere else for their relaxation.

A news letter is presently being prepared for all members of the Chamber. We urge you to give it your immediate attention as it contains important information about our brand new 1978 "Lure Book". The new concept planned for this year's book is bound to provide all members with improved results for their advertising dollar. Anyone who is not yet a member may still be included if you contact the chamber right away.

Modern society

By BILL SMILEY
DON'T you get a little tired of the touchiness of modern society in which, no matter where you step, it's on somebody's toes, no matter what you say or write, it's a slur on someone's background, color, creed or convictions?

About the only areas left in which one may chance a remark without fear of inflicting a wound are politics and sex.

It's extremely difficult to inflict even a bruise on a politician. He must have a fat ego in the first place, and he quickly acquires a brass hide to go with it. Add an ability to talk out of both sides of the mouth at once, and a certain skill in straddling fences, and you have cabinet material.

In the field of sex, there don't seem to be any limits any more to what can be said, presented or simulated. Movies, magazines and theatre club us over the head with raw, unembellished sex, or seek to titillate the spook in each of us with highly embellished, freaky sex until the whole once-exciting subject has become a crashing bore.

Aside from sex and politics then, there is scarcely an aspect of the human scene where even angels fear to tread, lest they step on someone's sensibilities.

Ethnic jokes are out, black is beautiful, gefillte fish is glorious. Rhodesia is rotten, poor people are more noble than rich people, gay is gorgeous, and the only real sin is to be old.

Lord forbid that we should ever go back to the days when a Catholic was a "mick" or a "dogan," a black person was a "nigger," an Italian was a "wop," a Chinese was a "chink," and so on.

But I do get heartily sick of a society in which you have to tiptoe all the time for fear of offending some touchy minority, or trespassing inadvertently on someone's weird religious affiliations.

We are developing into a society with a snobbish sort of reverse prejudice in which everybody is leaning over backwards in order to appear not even to be breathing on anyone else.

As a result, we are losing much of that good old Canadian crustiness and turning into a nation of nice nannies in whose mouths margarine wouldn't melt.

Even our media reflect this trend in our society. With few exceptions, our newspapers are as bland as blanc mange. The letters to the editor have more bite, and are often better written, than the editorials.

Our magazines are either tiresomely "liberal" or nar-

Christmas seems to put period to each year and the calendar gives us that week of grace to get over its exuberance and we are then well ready to begin the New Year. There is a somewhat unfortunate view that is becoming increasingly evident in the number of Canadians even from Haliburton, that respond to the beckoning of Southern hospitality and decide to live there until our climate improves to their liking. Our economists say that Canada can ill afford as high an adverse balance of tourism as we have had recently and there seems to be no solution. If we could develop a "Canada Hospitality" we may gradually but

Views of many of Canada's wild fowl. Everyone here seemed never to tire of views of the amazing grace of many species that inhabit the North, the fly ways and their winter refuge. It is incredible that the little gosling grow to fly the great distances of the flyways so quickly.

Hard frozen Park St. is now much more open since the sewer ditch was dug and then filled and smoothed over. It makes good walking and is very much wider. No doubt we will have mud when it thaws. It is so nice that the construction is so far along.

Our spiritual leader for our Friday morning devotional period was Rev. John Smith pastor of Lakeside Baptist church. Many hymns were sung to the accompaniment of Mrs. Velma Smith pianist. The theme was from the 34th psalm in finding someone to hear when God speaks. It seems that everyone is back from their time off so there was a good attendance. After this service we moved to the activity room where Mrs. Mary Currah poured tea and served cookies for the pastor and those caring to join.

1977 was good for us in that we have more to show than we did a year ago. At that time we lacked much that we have now, even this type-writer, our gestetner, sewing machines, facilities for growing plants and flowers, outside furniture that will grace our landscape next summer, and the near completion of the sewers. Soon our furniture, redundant and therefore untidy will be nicely stored in the shed which we are having built for that purpose. In addition to the various

County sports

BY JIM BADGLEY

Jim Badgley has eaten his last hot dog at the Dysart Community Centre and his last french fries at the Minden Arena, at least for some time.

While you read this column I am working for another newspaper in another town, but I will still be wondering how the Huskies have made out or who won the OMHA or Tri-County games the night before.

Some of the best times I have had in Haliburton County were in the arenas. Enjoying hockey games or community events. I have seen some of the local teams play at their best and at their worst, but every time I went to the rink, the game was entertaining.

During part of the past year, I have had the pleasure of serving, at least in a limited capacity, on the executive of the Haliburton Minor Hockey Association.

I can remember cheering many teams on during the past hockey season and looking in awe at how some of the players had improved for this season.

I can joke now that I am moving to a larger town with a higher calibre of sports. But after seeing, not just the calibre of play in Haliburton County, but also the calibre of sport management, I doubt very much if things will be any better.

Sports in Haliburton has been and always will be very important. In the county there are three curling clubs and three arenas. Not bad for an area with 10,000 population.

On Saturday I had the opportunity to take a look at the newest addition to the arena collection in the county, the Monmouth Arena.

The arena is without a doubt, the showcase of what hard work, dedication and dreams of a number of people can do. The rink, which is near completion, is second to none in what it offers the youngsters for hockey playing facilities.

To everyone who has made sports reporting easier in Haliburton County, I want to offer my thanks and I hope that you will continue to want to see your sports reports in The Echo and Recorder.

COUNTY ECHO SPORTS

The Thornton-Dundee Pee Wees of Oshawa spent a couple of days in Haliburton last week. The hockey team was hosted by the Haliburton Tri-County Pee Wees. The two teams played two games at the Dysart Community Centre.

Four game home stand for Huskies

Haliburton - The Haliburton Travelways Huskies will start a four game home stand this Friday night, that manager Don Lloyd hopes will move them up in the standings.

The team is presently in fifth place but only four points out of top spot.

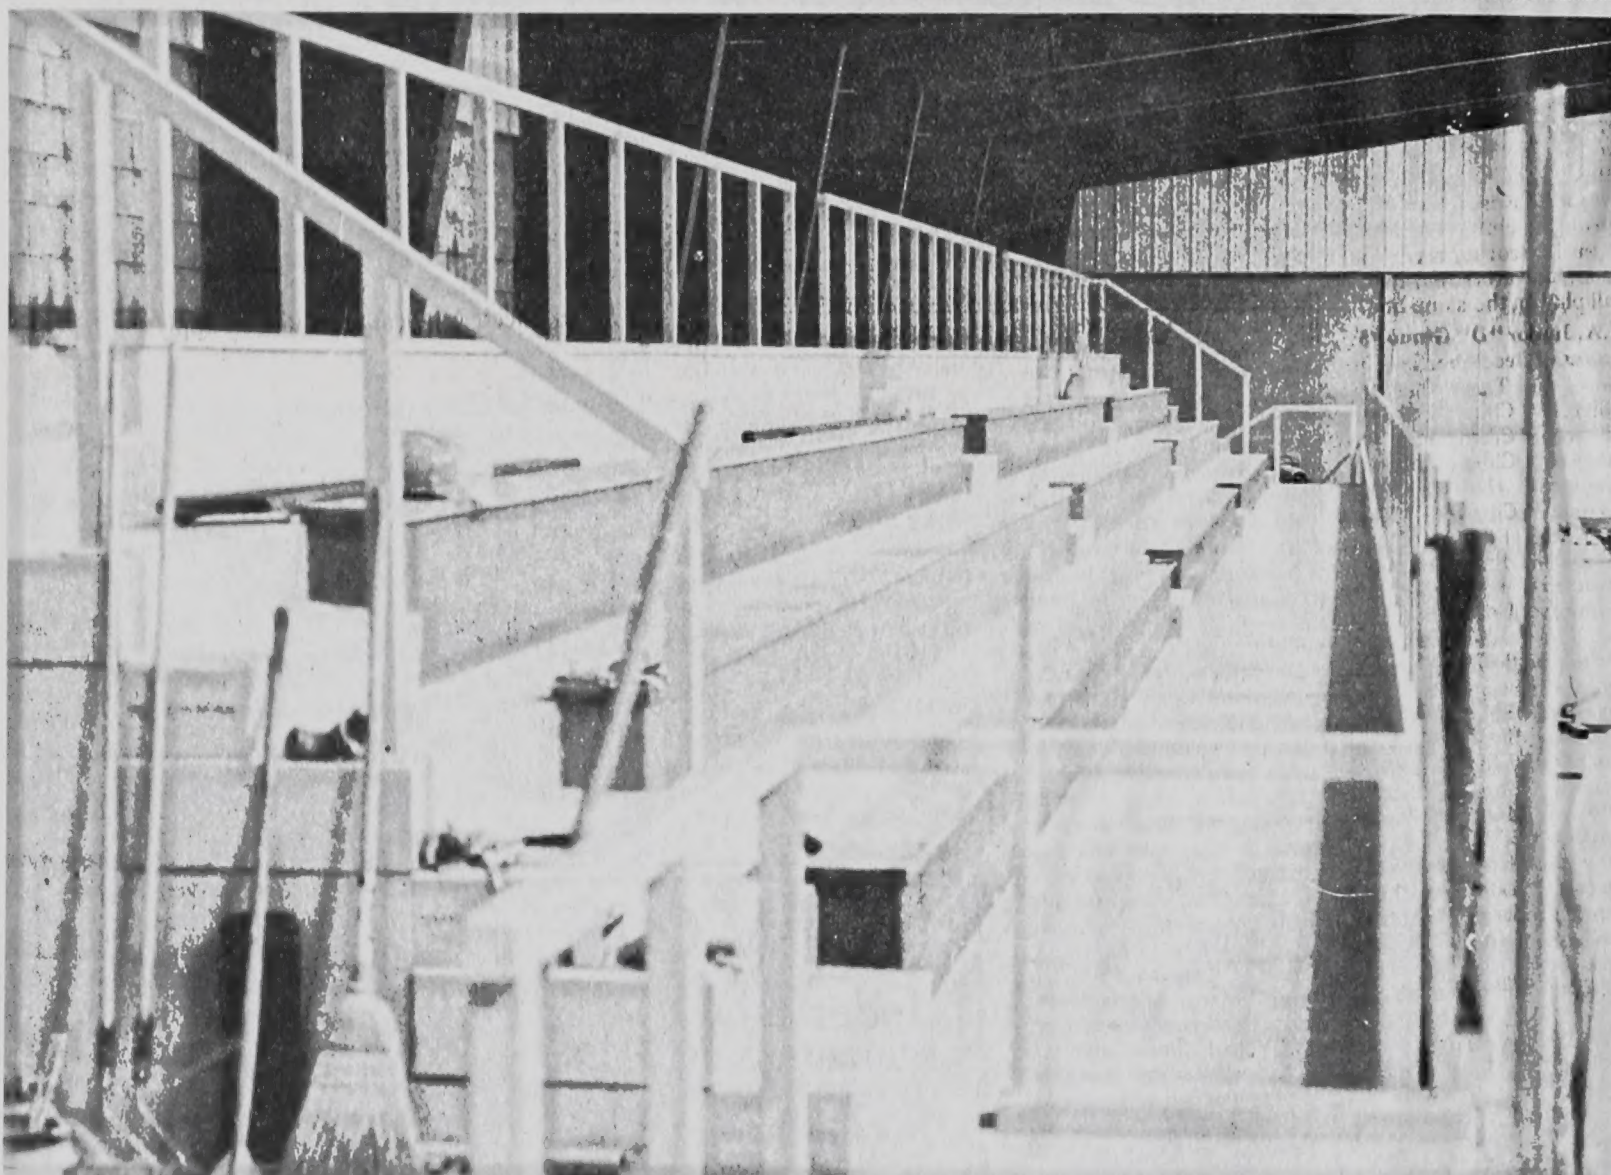

On Friday night the league standing Lakefield team will be at the Dysart arena for a game scheduled to start at 8:30 p.m.

Sunday afternoon, third place Bobcaygeon will be in town for a 2 p.m. game.

The following weekend will see Lakefield return to Haliburton for a Friday night game and second place Bancroft will play Sunday afternoon.

There will be plenty of room for spectators at the new Monmouth Arena. The arena has seats down one side of the ice surface and a great deal of standing room. Hockey fans in that area will likely be able to see some action next week in the building. There will be a skate-a-thon in the near future as part of the fund raising campaign for the new building.

There will likely be ice in the Monmouth Arena by next Wednesday. Keith Tallman, deputy reeve of the township, told The Echo and Recorder that work on putting the ice in the building will likely get underway by this weekend. The official opening of the new arena will be in March.

Along the Trails

BY ROY BATES

The Rider's Choice

The other day I went out and bought a new snowmobile, or did the snowmobile buy me? I'm not quite sure. Anyway, I took the old Olympique in to have some minor repairs made before trusting it to the trails and came home with an Everest. With two full years of warranty on the miles I ride, how can I lose?

What is really amazing about this deal is that I, of all people have gone for the big machine! I'm the guy who said snowmobiles are getting too powerful, too fast, and too heavy. I said that, and I meant it sincerely, back in the days of rough brushy trails when eight percent of my riding time was spent breaking trails for others to follow. I needed a machine that was not so powerful that it would bury itself and light enough to handle when occasionally it did. But now, someone is breaking trails for me, so the picture has changed!

I rode something like two thousand miles last winter and most of that distance was on superbly groomed trails. From my home at Donald, I could ride off in any direction and as far as I cared to go.

Most memorable trip was to Eganville, 354 miles in three days, but some of the shorter trips were also fun. Exploring the MNR Five Points Trails, escorting 14 Mount Forest riders from Irontal to Maynooth and bucking the slush for Snowarama were just a few of the highlights of last season. And I can't recall getting seriously "stuck" even once. This winter, with my Everest, I'll ride in armchair comfort.

Why is snowmobiling so much more enjoyable now? The Haliburton County Snowmobile Association, My snowmobile club. That hard-working group of individuals on the Board who surmount every obstacle and developed a snowmobile trail system that every Haliburton rider can take pride in. And of course, all the other clubs, nearly 300 of them who make up the Ontario Federation of Snowmobile Clubs and give it the strength to effectively influence Government officials.

If you are a member of the club (or even if you are not) and are confused as to what the H.C.S.A. has done for you, here are some figures you may find interesting.

Last winter's trail expenditure was well over $30,000. Divided by the club's family membership roll, this works out to a little over $100 per member. A very fair return for a $10 investment! Divided for a $10 investment! Indirectly, through the boost this kind of spending gives to the region's economy, every resident of the county shares in the benefit. Divided by the recent population count, this works out to approximately $3 for each man, woman and child living here. And we haven't even considered the snowmobiler's own personal spending which is estimated at $542.80 annually. Multiplied by the number of machines registered in this county we come up with a cool $1 Million!

Will you be a club booster this winter? The H.C.S.A. will be pleased to accept your membership. They are picking up their mail at Box 622, Minden, Ont., K0M 2K0.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1977 by The Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I'm dating a gentleman who seems very much interested in me. He's 60 and I'm 55. He'd make a wonderful catch, but there's a slight problem. He's funny about money.

He takes me to the finest restaurants, but when we leave, I always slip a few dollars under my coffee cup because his tips are so meager. He's a self-made man who recently sold his business for several million dollars, so I know he can afford to tip properly.

Otherwise he is a very high-class gentleman. I don't want to lose him. A lot of women in this town would love to have him—stingy or not.

Should I remind him that a tip should be at least 15 percent of the bill? He figured he knew me well enough to tell me flat out that I used too much perfume.

ATLANTA, GA.

DEAR ATLANTA: Don't offer this high-class low tipper any tips on tipping unless you're sure he can take it as well as dish it out. Some self-made men tend to be a little tight with their money. It's a tendency they developed in their leaner years.

DEAR ABBY: You say that people who are habitually late are "inconsiderate, selfish and immature."

What have you to say about guests who always arrive 20 to 30 minutes EARLY?

GERTRUDE

DEAR GERTRUDE: They are as inconsiderate and oftentimes more irritating to the hostess than the lateness.

DEAR ABBY: I just read the letter from 38 AND HATES IT, and I want to say that I had the same problem, only worse. I was a "40 D." I stood 5 foot 1, and had a very well-proportioned figure except for my conspicuously oversized bosom.

Ever since I was 14 I suffered because the boys laughed at me, some thought I was a pushover, and some made insulting passes at me. Not only that, I had a chronic backache from being so top-heavy.

I am now 33 and married. Last year I heard about a doctor who performed breast reduction surgery, so I went to him, and it was the wisest decision of my life.

He reduced my breasts to a normal 34 B and I've never been happier. (My hospitalization insurance covered it, too.) No more ill-fitting clothes or humiliation or backaches! I never knew that plastic surgeons could reduce breasts; I thought they could only enlarge them.

Abby, please let other women know that they don't have to be stuck with an oversized bosom all their lives. And tell them to be sure the doctor is a board certified plastic surgeon.

NO NAME, PLEASE

DEAR NO NAME: Here's your letter. Thanks for sharing.

Gems of Truth

Kingdom and Church

(cont'd. from last week)
In view of the importance that lies in the unfulfilled Kingdom aspect of the Lord Jesus Christ there are a few things in particular that should be noted. One of these is the fact that He has never yet assumed kingship. He has never yet taken His throne. Why not? The answer simply lies in the fact that the nation to whom He came as king rejected Him. John 1:11, Matt. 1:23; 27:29, John 19:12.

The Lord Jesus was crucified and died as the King of the Jews. Matt. 27:37, Luke 23:38, John 19:19. Therefore He did not assume His throne and reign.

Now we need to remember that the rejection of Christ as the King by His own nation and people, and His consequent crucifixion and death was not a mere accidental happening, and one which brought God upon the horns of a dilemma and occasioned Him to the task of quickly devising a new scheme to save Himself from defeat and disgrace. Most certainly Satan did not offset the plan and purpose of God, but rather fulfilled them. God in His infinite foreknowledge knew what Israel would do and He likewise knew that the Messiah would suffer before His glory would be revealed. Between those two peaks in the life of the Lord Jesus lay an interval of time not seen by the prophets. That interval cradled the outcalling of the Church. 1 Pet. 1:11, Luke 24:25-27, 44-48.

The rejection of the Lord Jesus Christ the King and Messiah of Israel, by His own people opened the way for the great secret God had hidden in Himself from all eternity and which He had never yet revealed. According to Paul there was "hid in God" (Eph.

3:9) a great unrevealed fact: that interval of time between the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ and His Return in glory. Likewise there was that unrevealed purpose, the outcalling of the Church which is His Body. This purpose of God the Holy Spirit is now fulfilling in the preaching of the Gospel among the nations of the earth. Acts 15:14, Rev. 2:9:10. The People thus gathered out are called "The Church, which is His Body, the fullness of Him that filled all in all" Eph. 1:22-23.

As the Body of Christ, the Church is a living organism, comparable to the human body with its various members and their peculiar functions. (1 Cor. 12) The Church which is Christ's Body is not an organization nor an institution, but a living, vital, growing organism, it is a mystical and spiritual body. This Church now being gathered out, does "not" take the place of the earthly Kingdom foretold by the Old Testament Prophets and which had drawn nigh at the advent of Christ the King. The Church is a Heavenly Body of people, and does not belong to the present world-system, John 17:14-16. Her character is pilgrim! Phil. 3:20, 1 Pet. 2:11.

There is a vast difference with a marked distinction between the earthly Kingdom of Christ and the Church of Christ. Never in all Scripture is the Lord Jesus called the King of the Church. He is the Head and Lord of the Church, but not King, because the several members of the and 24, Norland Volunteer Firemen's Hockey Pool were Marilyn Lee and Ida Pardy. Our sympathy to Gordon and Merle Campbell in the recent passing of their infant grandson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Campbell of Burnt River.

Early in December, CBC Radio announced the results of a consumer survey done in the Haliburton, Minden and Lindsay areas, without the knowledge of the store managers, various regular priced items are checked for prices and compared to each other. In this survey, Haliburton Red and White store, owned by Mike Easton, Norland, Minden I.G.A., and Lindsay's Loblaw's were the stores chosen. Haliburton Red & White was the store that was found to have the least expensive prices while Minden I.G.A. was only six tenths of one per cent higher, but the Loblaw's store had thirteen per cent higher prices. Specials are not used in a price comparison test. Perhaps from this unsolicited survey, we as consumers will realize that our local supermarkets are still a good and economical place to shop.

As mentioned in my column of Dec. 21, I, as a taxpayer, agreed with our local Council's stand re. elementary school pupils being bussed to Lindsay Aquatorium for swimming lessons. Since then several other

The parable of the tares should suffice to show that it does not fit for "Heaven," "Church" or the "Gospel". Matt. 13:38. The parable of the leaven makes it clear that the whole mass (Professing Christendom) will be permeated with evil. 33-35. It must be noted that the true Church is called out in the period of time, but does not come under the parable designations. That "Church" is pure, and is cleansed by the Lord of the Church.

councils and parents have made statements that they, too, do not agree with this use of the ratepayer's money. Our Board of Education does not answer directly to the taxpayers for the spending of its money. An allocation is sent to the Council for the amount the Board decides it needs for educational purposes and it is up to the township council to raise this money through your, the taxpayers. Council does not have the authorization to refuse this demand for money. There has to be something wrong with this system. Two alternatives that come to mind are (1) The Board of Education should have to convince the Township Council that their request for money is reasonable or (2) They should issue their own tax bills so that the public will know how their money is being spent. Whatever system is used, it is long overdue that the Board of Education

January is the month of Church congregational meetings and tentative dates for the Coboconk charge of the United Church are as follows: Tuesday, Jan. 3, Burnt River; Tues. Jan. 10 - Kimmount; Thurs., Jan. 12 - Norland; Mon. Jan. 16 - Coboconk; and Wed. Jan. 18, Baddow, all starting at 8:00 p.m.

While driving north through Norland on Highway 35 on Friday, December 30, W.K. Morris of Toronto with his son-in-law and two young grandchildren, had the misfortune to be involved in an accident. Mr. Morris' car went out of control on the slippery, snowy road near Hwy. 503, and slammed into a truck owned by Roger Gostlin that was parked across from the post office.

Fortunately at the time of the impact, Roger was not in his truck. The man on the passenger side of the front seat of the car hit his head in the collision and was momentarily knocked unconscious. The others appeared to be unhurt, but all were taken to Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay for more thorough examinations.

Bananas

Bananas are a good food value at only 85 calories for a 3 1/2 ounce, 8-inch banana. They contain Vitamins A, C and B6; thiamine, riboflavin, niacin, potassium and some iron.

Serving suggestions: Add overripe bananas to puddings, pies, muffins, cookies, and milkshakes. Their natural sweetness will help save on sugar, and their flavor and moisture will enrich any recipe or mix.

Banana Chips: Into a deep fryer or large, heavy saucepan, pour about 2 1/2 inches of vegetable oil or shortening. Heat to 375° F. Peel and slice about 1 pound of very green bananas into paper-thin rounds.

Deep-fry slices, about a dozen at a time, for 3-4 minutes, turning with a slotted spoon. When they are golden brown or both sides, transfer to paper towels to drain. Serve warm or at room temperature.

Banana Pops: Cut banana into 4 chunks and spear each with a wooden toothpick or small skewer. Freeze and serve like popsicles.

Sautéed Bananas: Melt 2 tbsp. butter in a skillet. Add 4 whole, firm bananas. Cook over low heat, turning once, until tender - about 5 minutes.

MPP Accuses

John Eakins, MPP, Victoria-Haliburton, accused the Minister of Agriculture and Food, William Newman, of making a joke of an inexcusable waste of taxpayers' money and the need to help our native people to make a livelihood, in connection with Ogoki Wilderness Lodge in the Whitewater Lake region, 160 miles north of Thunder Bay.

"I have repeatedly questioned the Minister of Agriculture and Food about the Ogoki Wilderness Lodge," said Mr. Eakins. "He has refused to provide the information I have requested - information which should be made available to the people of Ontario, who are being asked to foot the bill. Instead of answering my questions, and those of other Opposition Members, the Minister has made flippant and irrelevant remarks about the manager of the lodge and his girl friend. He has even gone so far as to imply that we are prejudiced against the Indians for whom this project would provide much needed jobs - an unforgivable and unjustified implication."

"Both the Minister and his colleague, the Minister of Culture and Recreation, have been asked a number of questions about the lodge. How many native people have actually been paid salaries for its construction? How many can expect to be employed by the lodge when it is completed and operational? Which Ministry will have the responsibility for ensuring that the Ogoki River Guides will not incur liability for operating losses? When will the Lodge actually open, bearing in mind the fact that it has been 'completed' since Sept. 1976, yet still remains idle?"

The Public Accounts of the Ministry of Agriculture and Food show that $978,382 has been spent on the Ogoki project over three years, with approximately 90 per cent of this money being reimbursed by the federal government.

Another $108,500 has been granted through the Ministry of Culture and Recreation for a total provincial expenditure of $205,838. In the last year alone, the province paid out at least $106,846 in this connection. Supposedly about $30,000 was spent last year on business management - yet the Lodge isn't even open. A further $6,500 went on tourist guiding equipment in 1973 - what kind of tourists were interested in the project at that stage?

"Total cost of the Ogoki project to date is over $1,200,000. While much of this total has been funded by the federal government, it is still the taxpayers' money, and it is the province which had the administrative responsibility for the project."

"The concept of a Wilderness Lodge in this location is

An interesting holiday party was sponsored by the Gibbs sisters last Thursday afternoon. They invited a number of St. Peter's Euchre fans to Isabelle's home and had two tables of 6 handed Euchre in play. Mid way through the evening, there was a change of partners and tables which caused much hilarity. It was truly an evening of good clean fun and finished off with refreshments and Christmas cake.

The Down's cottage is alive this holiday week, and the young folk are taking advantage of the good weather to enjoy outdoor sports.

Word has been received from Fred & Jessie Prentice from Melbourne, Fla., that they are having better summer weather than last year, and not too much rain. They are happily settled for the next few months and send Christmas and New Year greetings to all their friends in the Haliburton Area.

Mr. & Mrs. Doug Brown of RR 2, Minden are spending the holiday with relatives in Toronto.

Mr. & Mrs. Bill Chambers are enjoying a Christmas break in London with their son Brian and his family.

Mr. & Mrs. John Barclay, Peter, and Grandma Davis (Peggy's mother), left Sat. a.m. to spend a short Christmas vacation in Richmond Hill with Mr. & Mrs. Twidale, and will also visit other relatives and friends in the Toronto area. Grandma is expecting to have a visit with a younger sister from Hamilton, and the visiting party will not return to Maple Lake until another milestone is passed.

Christmas decorations previously described we have the cheerful coloring of many poinsettias that have been given to us individually and collectively. There are some exotic begonia in magnificent bloom, also a beautifully large Christmas cactus in its colourful array. At this time we would like to thank all those who very kindly gave us floral arrangements. We are grateful to have such cordial contacts with the senior citizens of Haliburton and the residents of Hyland Crest in Minden.

At this New Year Canada is officially given to the Metric system of weights and measures. The 2 x 4 studding, the gallon can, the prize socket wrench that has been a stand by, the 12 inch rule, the bushel of farm produce, even weight watchers will watch in kilos (kilograms), distances plotted in kilometers. The child born today will never use the inch, the pound, or the quart. The only measure left will be the spoon or the cup. And so this New Year is unique in history.

Only 3 residents were away this New Year's day, Mrs. Elizabeth McIntosh, Mrs. Hazel Parish and John Young. They will be back again soon. We are glad that they could celebrate at home.

Mr. & Mrs. Syd Barnes drove to Wingfield last Wednesday to pick up their son, Tim, who will enjoy Christmas with other members of the Barnes family, and spend the school vacation among Carnarvon friends. Welcome home, Tim.

The Tom Hodgsons had an unexpected surprise on Monday, last week, when they received a phone call from the Minnesota area from a son-in-law, telling their air fare to Minnesota was prepaid and tickets awaited them at Malton Airport to be used as a Christmas surprise for their daughter. Can't you just see May and Tom flying around home getting things in shape to close up their home for a while. No doubt the Christmas trip will extend into a winter vacation. Do you suppose they have any snow in Minnesota? - more than here I should think. On arrival at the western airport they would enjoy a 40 mile drive to the daughter's home - where she would, for the first time, be aware of this delightful surprise.

We understand the Harry Davi's are having not only their immediate family for Christmas with them, but will also enjoy the company of Harry's mother, Mrs. Violet Watson of Lindsay, as well as Irene's mother, Mrs. Berta Dawson of Hyland Crest, in Minden.

May I extend, at this late date, the sympathy of the community to the Dawson families on the passing of Holly Dawson recently, and to the friends and relatives of Rex Cowan who has gone to his eternal rest after a long illness. Especially do we sympathize with his sister Myra, (Mrs. Arthur Barry) and his daughter Sydna and her family.

Let's hope the Flue Bug doesn't make life miserable for any more families at this time, especially the children who hope to enjoy their school holiday. I believe the entire Tomlinson family have been ill.

A Very Happy New Year to Everyone.

As the New Year enters and all our hopes for a good year, May I thank those who took the trouble to tell me about your club or church or organization meetings, your visitors and items of interest, in the past year. That what "news" is all about. I enjoy the columns written by other correspondents and I know sometimes how difficult it can be to get a column together. Thanks again for your help and God Bless you in the New Year.

be visited upon disobedience, but the convenient itself cannot be abrogated. 11 Sam. 7:8-16. Ps. 89:30-37. That covenant made to David was renewed to Mary by the Angel Gabriel, Luke 1:31-33 and the day will come when God will give to the Lord Jesus Christ that throne of His father David. It is then that the words of the song - writer will ring true. "Jesus shall reign where're the sun, Does His successive journey run, His Kingdom spread from shore to shore, Fill moons shall wax and wane no more.

Church are not His subjects to ruled over but are "members of His Body, of His flesh and of His bones". Eph. 5:30.

The Kingship of Christ is a Scriptural and Divine fact, and the Kingdom of the Heavens is a Divine certainty, but they are still future. All that the Prophets foretell and predict concerning the King and the Kingdom, will some day be literally fulfilled.

In the covenant Jehovah God made with David, upon which the glorious Kingdom of the Lord Jesus is founded, we find that God made provision for chastisement to
